Discount Shipping

The Protective Producer's Association and FedEx are partnering up to offer you HUGE SAVINGS on all your shipping needs. PPA Members can take advantage of savings up to 40% through FedEx.

Direct Mail

The Protective Producers Association (PPA) is pleased to introduce a Direct Mail Program that may help you reach out to new consumer prospects. With the PPA Direct Mail Program, you will have access to purchase a single use mailing list of selected consumers who have been prioritized according to various demographic criteria.

You may select your list by zip code and dwelling type and even chose an income range and age bracket to help refine your selections. The pre-approved direct mail pieces will be customized with your personal contact information. The phone calls and emails from consumers come directly to you.

Discounts Now Available for PPA Members!

The Protective Producer's Association and Corporate Express have partnered to offer SAVINGS on all your office supply needs.
